

Calhoun et al. v. Google LLC

Consumer, Privacy & Antitrust

Role BFA is acting as co-lead counsel representing the class of Chrome users in this litigation.

Background This nationwide data privacy class action is brought on behalf of Google Chrome users alleging that Google violated its express promise not to take users' personal data when using the Chrome browser outside of synched mode.

Court U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California

Case Number 20-CV-05146

Status Pending

BFA is acting as co-lead counsel representing the class of Chrome users in this litigation.

This nationwide data privacy class action is brought on behalf of Google Chrome users alleging that Google violated its express promise not to take users' personal data when using the Chrome browser outside of synched mode.

On August 20, 2024, the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit ruled in favor of Plaintiffs, reversing a summary judgment in favor of Google, and sending the Chrome privacy case to trial.