Why Is Driven Brands being Sued for Securities Fraud?

Driven Brands is being investigated for violations of the federal securities laws following a significant stock drop. The decline in Driven Brands' stock price caused significant losses to investors.

Driven Brands is an automotive aftermarket services company that owns, operates, and franchises vehicle maintenance, repair, collision, glass, and car wash brands.

Throughout the relevant period, Driven Brands assured investors that its financial reporting was accurate and that its internal controls were effective.

As alleged, these statements were materially false and misleading because Driven Brands suffered from pervasive accounting errors, including lease accounting issues, unreconciled cash balances, improperly classified expenses, and improperly recognized revenue, spanning fiscal years 2023 through 2025.

Why did Driven Brands' Stock Drop?

On February 25, 2026, Driven Brands disclosed that it would restate its financial statements for fiscal years 2023 and 2024, as well as quarterly and year-to-date financials for 2025, after identifying numerous material accounting errors. The Company also revealed material weaknesses in its internal controls over financial reporting and delayed the filing of its 2025 Form 10-K.

On this news, the price of Driven Brands stock dropped over 30% on February 25, 2026.

What is the Driven Brands Leadership Deadline?

You may ask the Court no later than May 8, 2026, to appoint you as Lead Plaintiff through counsel of your choice.

To be a member of the Class, you need not take any action at this time. The ability to share in any potential future recovery is not dependent on serving as Lead Plaintiff.
