Once Upon a Farm, PBC Class Action Investigation

U.S. Securities Litigation

Once Upon a Farm Investigation Overview

BFA is investigating whether Once Upon a Farm, PBC violated the federal securities laws by misleading investors about the safety Once Upon a Farm's Tractor Wheels toddlers' snack. Investors may be able to file a class action to potentially recover losses.

If you lost money on your Once Upon a Farm investment, you are encouraged to submit your information using the form on this page. You may also email adam@bfalaw.com or call 212.789.3619.

Why is Once Upon a Farm being investigated for Violations of the Securities Laws?

Once Upon a Farm is being investigated for securities violations following a significant stock drop. The decline in Once Upon a Farm's stock price caused significant losses to investors.

Once Upon a Farm makes snacks and foods for infants, toddlers, and young children.

BFA is investigating whether Once Upon a Farm misrepresented the safety of its Tractor Wheels toddlers' snack.

Why did Once Upon a Farm's Stock Drop?

On October 30, 2026, the FDA issued a warning advising consumers that it "has received several reports that describe toddlers (ages 1.5–2.5 years) suffering complete airway obstruction with the inability to breathe after consuming the product." The FDA explained that "standard choking interventions . . . may fail to dislodge" the "dry, sticky mass" resulting from eating Tractor Wheels and some "incidents have required emergency response intervention and hospital observation." Following this announcement, Once Upon a Farm issued a full recall of Tractor Wheels.

Copyright © Bleichmar Fonti & Auld LLP All Rights Reserved • www.bfalaw.com

Then, on November 2, 2026, Once Upon a Farm disclosed that the FDA "received 3 reports of choking incidents" that its "investigation has not yet identified a root cause that we can link directly to these reports."

Following that announcement, Once Upon a Farm shares fell approximately 37.2% on November 2, 2026.

Once Upon a Farm ($OFRM) Stock Chart

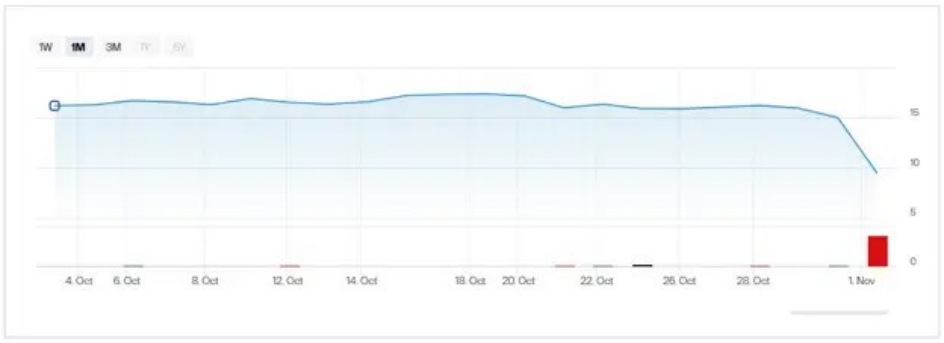

Image Caption: NYSE stock chart showing Once Upon a Farm's stock drop on November 2, 2026.

How Do I Submit My Information?

If you lost money when Once Upon a Farm securities dropped in price, you are encouraged to submit your information using the form on this page to speak with an attorney about your rights.

You can also contact:

Adam McCall
adam@bfalaw.com
212.789.3619

All representation is on a contingency fee basis; there is no cost to you. Shareholders are not responsible for any court costs or expenses of the class action lawsuit. The firm will seek court approval for any potential fees and expenses.

Why Bleichmar Fonti & Auld LLP?

BFA is a leading international law firm representing plaintiffs in securities class actions and shareholder litigation. It has been named a top plaintiff law firm by Chambers USA, The Legal 500, and ISS SCAS.

BFA attorneys have been named "Elite Trial Lawyers" by the National Law Journal, "Litigation Stars" by Benchmark Litigation, among the top "500 Leading Plaintiff Financial Lawyers" by Lawdragon, "Titans of the Plaintiffs' Bar" by Law360, and "Super Lawyers" by Thomson Reuters.

Most recently, The Legal 500 awarded BFA the most client satisfaction accolades of any plaintiff's securities litigation law firm, with clients noting: "[t]here is no better service provider in the practice area," "[t]he interest of the client is always front and center," and "[t]here isn't a better firm in this space." One testimonial described the firm as "nimble and entrepreneurial," with a "relentless focus on adding value for clients."

Among its recent notable successes, BFA recovered over $900 million in value from Tesla, Inc.'s Board of Directors, as well as $420 million from Teva Pharmaceutical Ind. Ltd.

Attorney advertising. Past results do not guarantee future outcomes.

Copyright © Bleichmar Fonti & Auld LLP All Rights Reserved • www.bfalaw.com