

BFA Appointed Lead Counsel in Centene Corporation Securities Litigation

On August 11, 2026, Judge Andrew L. Carter in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York appointed BFA's client as Lead Plaintiff and BFA as Lead Counsel in the securities class action against Centene Corporation. The action alleges that Centene misrepresented the true state of its enrollment and morbidity rates. BFA is proud to serve as Lead Counsel in this important matter.
