

BFA Recognized by Chambers as Leading Law Firm

Bleichmar Fonti & Auld LLP is pleased to announce that Chambers and Partners has recognized BFA as one of the country's leading law firms. The Chambers USA Legal Guide for 2024, which "highlight[s] the top lawyers and law firms across the USA," listed BFA as a leader in the category Securities Litigation: Mainly Plaintiff. BFA's Chambers Department Profile describes the firm as "very experienced," "smart," "aggressive," and "extraordinarily skilled and well versed in complex securities litigation and the related litigation strategy that such complexity requires." Chambers also ranked BFA in the USA California Guide for the Litigation: Mainly Plaintiff division as well as in the New York Guide in the Securities Litigation: Mainly Plaintiff category. Chambers specifically highlighted BFA Partner Lesley Weaver in the California Antitrust: Mainly Plaintiff category where she was described as a "terrific and a very practical lawyer" and "excellent in the courtroom."