

BFA Partner Erin Woods Serves at Panelist at LAPERS 2025 Conference

On Sunday, September 7, BFA Partner Erin Woods served as a panelist at The Louisiana Retirement 2025 Seminar hosted by The Louisiana Association of Public Employees' Retirement System (LAPERS) in New Orleans. The panel on Securities Litigation, moderated by Margaret Corley Michael, Executive Director of Louisiana State Retirement System, focused on the importance of portfolio monitoring and institutional investors' crucial role in policing the market and holding companies accountable when they commit securities fraud. BFA is proud to support LAPERS as a Gold Sponsor for this annual conference.
