

BFA Attorneys Named to Lawdragon's 500 Leading Litigators in America Guide for 2026

BFA is pleased to share that Lawdragon has named partners Javier Bleichmar, Joseph Fonti, and Lesley Weaver to its 500 Leading Litigators in America Guide for 2026. This prestigious recognition honors the nation's top courtroom advocates who are shaping the future of law and justice through their exceptional litigation work.

Selected through a rigorous process combining journalistic research, peer evaluation, and an unprecedented number of submissions, this year's guide celebrates elite litigators across a wide range of practices. Honorees are recognized for their excellence in areas including commercial litigation, securities and fiduciary litigation, class actions, antitrust, white collar investigations, and more.

Javier, Joseph, and Lesley have consistently demonstrated the highest level of advocacy in high-stakes litigation, representing clients in landmark cases that have delivered impactful results and driven meaningful outcomes across industries. Their inclusion in this year's Lawdragon 500 underscores their dedication, expertise, and national impact as leading trial lawyers.

Please join us in congratulating them on this well-deserved honor.
