

BFA Sponsors 66th Annual Washington State Building & Construction Trades Council Convention

BFA is proud to have sponsored the 66th annual Washington State Building & Construction Trades Council Convention. Tony Saguibo (of Counsel) and Tracey Sheak (Client Relations Director) attended the event held in Wenatchee, Washington from September 8th to September 11th.

This statewide convention joins delegates from regional and district councils along with local unions to discuss leadership, adopt new resolutions, and hold elections.

Tony and Tracey were pleased to attend and look forward to BFA's continued support of the Washington State Building & Construction Trades Council.
