

BFA Partner Lesley Weaver to Serve as a Panelist at Consumer Attorneys of California's 2025 Class Action Seminar

On Thursday, September 25, BFA Partner Lesley Weaver will serve on a panel at the Consumer Attorneys of California's 2025 Class Action Seminar. The Panel is titled "Cracking the Code: Certifying Privacy Class Actions," and it will be hosted by veteran class action lawyers as they share real-world strategies and lessons learned from the front lines of privacy litigation. Attendees will walk away with insider tips on tackling predominance, damages, and standing issues, as well as a clearer roadmap for certifying your class in this fast-evolving practice area.
