

BFA Partner Erin Woods Serves as Panelist at NCPERS Annual Conference

BFA Partner Erin Woods served as a panelist at the 2026 NCPERS Annual Conference & Exhibition in Las Vegas, speaking during the general session titled “Securities Litigation in Transition: Regulatory Shifts, Trustee Strategy, and Market Accountability.”

Erin shared practical insights on evaluating potential cases, strengthening trustee oversight, and navigating a shifting regulatory landscape to protect plan assets and support market accountability. The session drew strong engagement from trustees and fund representatives focused on adapting to today’s changing legal environment.

We appreciate NCPERS for hosting this important conversation and for bringing together leaders committed to advancing fiduciary stewardship.
