

BFA Attorneys Publish Article in GAPPT's Second Quarter Newsletter

BFA attorneys Javier Bleichmar, Erin Woods, Nancy Kulesa, and William Massa recently authored an article titled Why an Active Approach to Corporate Governance is Important in Today's Market, which was published in the Second Quarter Newsletter published by Georgia Association of Public Pension Trustees ("GAPPT").

The article discusses recent insights from market commentators and large equity investors as to the importance of an active approach to corporate governance.

For more information, please contact us. The article is available in the link to the right.