Adriane DuPlessis is BFA's Paralegal Manager, and leads a team of paralegals that supports complex legal matters across state and federal jurisdictions.

Adriane is a seasoned legal professional with over two decades of progressive experience in litigation. With a strong commitment to professional excellence, Adriane has built a career defined by her ability to support high-stakes litigation, streamline case workflows, and lead effective legal support teams.

Prior to joining BFA, Adriane worked at a premier corporate and commercial litigation boutique where she played a critical role in all phases of litigation, including legal research, electronic discovery, subpoena coordination, and trial preparation.

She received her B.B.A. from Temple University and her Paralegal Certificate from Widener Law School.
