P:

David Leopard is an associate at BFA and represents investors in securities class actions and related litigation.

Prior to joining BFA, David was an associate at a prominent law firm in New York for four years, where he was a member of the firm's Securities and M&A Litigation Group. He also represented clients in connection with Delaware and derivative actions, white collar investigations, and complex commercial litigation. While earning his law degree from Boston College Law School, he worked as a legal intern in the Enforcement Division at the U.S. Commodity Futures Trading Commission.
